Bill Stands "Ready to Serve" in the Original Lombard Bricks

Bricks founder, Bill Wilson, had his first taste of wood fired brick oven pizza during a family vacation in San Diego, California. Years later, he could still vividly remember the experience and found himself longing for the crispy, chewy crust, the taste and the aroma that comes only from a wood fired brick oven. Chicagoland was nearly devoid of any brick oven pizzerias at the time. Bill knew if he shared this type of pizza with others, they would surely love it too!

After years of research and development with design, recipes, techniques and constant encouragement from his wife Donna and son Ryan, an architect specializing in restaurant concept and design, the Bricks Wood Fired Pizza concept was born.

Our Thin-crust, Neapolitan-style pizza, baked in an authentic wood fired brick oven, is the centerpiece of our fresh gourmet menu, but it doesn't stop there. While we are known for our perfect crust, we encourage you to try our Artisan Sandwiches, Fresh Salads and Gourmet Desserts. Come in, relax, and experience everything we have to offer!
